

DNA Positively Identified As Tina Marie McQuaig

Tina, Forever In Our Hearts

The name Tina Marie McQuaig will be etched in our minds forever. A name broadcasted over television, both locally and nationally as a missing person. She was a beautiful young woman who mysteriously disappeared three years ago. She was married, and had a four-year-old son named Tyler.

A press conference was called on March 10, 2003, to announce that the remains were positively identified as Tina's. Unfortunately, due to illness, Elmer and Linda Rice were unable to attend, however they requested Ann Dugger, Executive Director of the Justice Coalition, to deliver the following statement to the media:

On behalf of my husband, Elmer, and myself, we would like to thank the community for all its loving support and earnest prayers. We couldn't have made it this far without our Heavenly Father so graciously lifting us up. We would like to thank the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and the media for keeping our daughter, Tina McQuaig's, tragic story and her smiling face in the news.

With a broken heart, we are asking your help one more time. Our daughter, Tina, has a killer on the loose. Someone has information regarding her murder. No matter how trivial you feel this information may be, it could be very important. Please call the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office at 630-0500. We need your help!!!

Loving Mother and Founder of "Families of Missing Loved Ones" Remembers her Daughter

The fragrance of a lovely yellow rose
Floating so graciously through the air,
Reminds us of the precious times,
And of your beauty so very rare.

The melodies that flow like an orchestra
Softly whispering through the night,
Remind us of another time,
Of your delicate voice and a lovely sight.

Remembrances of days such as these Flood our thoughts and hearts with rhyme
And we can not help but long for
The songs of another time.

A time when life made sense to us,
When love was everywhere,
When you so happily smiled and laughed
While your fragrance filled the air.

God has chosen you our angel
Your beautiful smile and sparkling eyes,
To look down upon us all
What a blessing, God has chosen a prize.

We will always remember
All the beauty and the grace,
Your smile as bright as sunshine and your beautiful angelic face.

These priceless memories constantly reminds
Of the love that faithfully consumes us,
That you, our sweet Tina, always on our minds
Will forever hold a special place deep within our hearts.
