

In the Spotlight

V. Wayne Williford

...who joined the Justice Coalition board in 2004 and recently became its chairman, is Vice President/Secretary-Treasurer of J. B. Coxwell Contracting, Inc., a site, utility and road-building contractor in Northeast Florida. A lifelong resident of Jacksonville's Westside, he teaches a Sunday School class of 11th and 12th grade boys at Macedonia Baptist Church.

Wayne serves on other boards in our area, including a local community bank and other Christian-related organizations. He is a graduate of the University of North Florida and has an MBA degree from Jacksonville University. He and his wife, Shelley, have three children.

Why I Serve

By Wayne Williford

The Justice Coalition exists as a ministry to help victims of violent crimes. I have become aware that no one is immune from being a victim of crime. It upsets me that under our current legal system the criminals have more rights and opportunities for help than the victims and their families.

I hope my involvement with the Justice Coalition can make a difference for the better in the life of a victim, or a victim's family member.
