

In The Spotlight

The Justice Coalition Board of Directors happily welcomes a new member - Robert Bracewell. He's been involved in so many special events and fundraisers, however, we hardly consider him a newcomer.

Robert is an interesting individual who has a wide range of experience, interests and skills. He owns and operates two businesses: On the Level Home Inspection of Florida (established in 2005) and Bracewell's LED Signs.

He was born near Atlanta, but has lived in Jacksonville since he was three months old. An alumnus of Paxon Junior and Senior High Schools, he joined the Army after graduation, served three years, then became an aircraft engine examiner with the Department of Defense. He retired in June 2006 after 31 years.

Robert learned about the Justice Coalition when he was invited to attend our Together We Can breakfasts as a guest of Hugh Powell (Cecil Powell Insurance Company) in connection with the Solomon Lodge. He was impressed by what our small organization stands for and what we do in the community to help victims and those in need.

When he became Master of the Lodge in 2007, he invited Ann Dugger to give a presentation to its members, "one thing led to another," and Robert became more and more involved with the Justice Coalition. He has been a strong committee member for several fundraisers, lending his expertise to ensure success. He was happy to become a board member, "is proud of what we do" and wants to help more in the future.

Married to his wonderful wife, Mary Ann (Taylor), Robert says she "keeps me straight and takes good care of me." She is the widow of the former pastor at Southpoint Baptist Church. He says, "She is a wonderful cook, and I'm a wonderful eater, so we get along great!" Together they have five grown daughters - "all gainfully employed" - and they all have children, so Robert and Mary Ann spend a lot of time with the grandkids.

OOPS!!!

We goofed last month - twice!

In the article about Unsolved Murders, we erroneously stated Linda Joyce Frazier was assaulted on March 5, 1995, and died August 17 that year. The latter date should have been March 17. We apologize to Eugene and his family for this error.

And in the picture below, we mistakenly identified JSO's Ken Jefferson as Longhorn Steakhouse Manager Matt Leipau.

Gentlemen, we're sorry for the miscue.
