

YEAR END GIVING: Will You Make A Difference?

Victims Of Crime speak about the Justice Coalition:
"After two years the only one left (with me) was the Justice Coalition".
Doug McCray, husband of murder victim, Lori McCray.

"Finally somebody heard us". Connie Verville, sister of murdered Correctional Officer, Tommie Dennard.

"I read every word in the Victims' Advocate and you are doing a great job. Don't let up on those Appellate Judges. Just as Ted Hires won't let up. He's doing wonders in Jacksonville's area".
Mardean Cole, mother of murder victim, Michael Cole.

The Justice Coalition is on the side of innocent victims of violent crime. When our phone rings, the Justice Coalition goes to work for victims, free of charge.

"It was me in '95, it could be you tomorrow". "Reach in your pocket but give from your heart". Sharon Coon, mother of murdered son, James Coon.

Please send a Christmas, Channukuh, or end of the year gift to the Justice Coalition and help support Victims Of Violent Crime. Your gift is tax deductible. As a limited time offer, The Justice Coalition's Victims' Advocate will be mailed to your home or office for one year, when you make a donation of $35 or more. The Justice Coalition is a 501 © 3 non - profit ministry.
