

Remembering Jo Mills

We were saddened during the holidays by the death of Jo Mills, a lovely lady who meant a lot to us at the Justice Coalition, and who will be sorely missed. We've talked a lot about Clyde (Pa) and Jo during the past several years and how they have helped us in our day-to-day operation. Pa comes by almost every day to deliver our newspaper, do necessary tasks, empty trash or clean up around the office and do anything else we need, and Jo always quietly supported him – and us.

We met the Mills when their son, Marty, was murdered by a 16-year old robber in December 2000. Ted and Ann immediately went to their aid when friends told them how shattered the Mills were, and they were with them, and their daughter Carla and her family, every step of the way during the ensuing investigation and trial.

A truly beautiful lady, inside and out, Jo will be missed by all who were privileged to know and love her.

The Justice Coalition also lost another friend in January – Shirley Butler, the wife of Tom Butler, who faithfully comes each month from Green Cove Springs to pick up and deliver the Victims' Advocate in his area. She, too, was a beautiful lady, and our heartfelt sympathy is extended to Tom and his family.
