PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR

In Northeast Florida, the families of six adults who have disappeared without a trace, have formed a Non-Profit Organization, FAMILIES OF MISSING LOVED ONES, to help support each other and with an overriding purpose: keeping the cases alive in the minds of police and the public. Their lobbying efforts resulted in Governor Jeb Bush issuing a Proclamation declaring March 5, Florida Missing Adults Day, asking that communities remain aware of their plight and continue efforts to find those who have disappeared.

The Proclamation reads: "Whereas, every missing adult is someone's son or daughter, father or mother, brother or sister, husband or wife. NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jeb Bush, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing Florida Missing Adults Day, March 5, 2002.
