Christmas baskets from Merrill Lynch

Once again this year Merrill Lynch sponsored a "Holiday Food Basket" drive for victims' families being assisted by the Justice Coalition. Susan Dreier, the Merrill Lynch Employee Services Coordinator, solicited the employees and departments of the Jacksonville campus to donate food items and money for 45 families and coordinated a timely delivery.

The employees did an excellent job, donating 29 baskets of all shapes and sizes, overflowing with goodies, to ensure a "Happy Holiday" season for hurting families. The remaining 16 baskets were sponsored with funds raised by Employee Services throughout the year and put together by Employee Services.

Victims' families exclaimed with delight over the Merrill Lynch employees Andrewale Disu, Supervisor Mervyn Charles and Mickey Vukadinovic with some of the baskets they delivered.

beautifully decorated baskets/boxes filled with a wide variety of food items, but also contained gift certificates from Winn-Dixie, Publix and Walmart, Christmas decorations and stockings, Christmas dishes, kitchen linen, Christmas music CDs, scented candles and even a Christmas Polar Express DVD.

We extend our sincere appreciation to Merrill Lynch employees for their generous donation of time and resources – and most of all for caring about their neighbors.
