The Justice Coalition began in 1995 because one man's priorities were changed. Ted Hires was the average businessman working 60 to 80 hours a week and looking out for himself until that day when he and his staff were held at gunpoint and robbed. Being a victim of crime, Ted found the criminal justice system worked harder for the criminal than the victim. As a result of Ted's experience, he formed a (501C3) non-profit organization, the Justice Coalition, and is making an effort to change the Fourth Judicial court system for the better.

Since 1995, the Justice Coalition has been fighting crime every step of the way. Fugitives captured are through a partnership with local media and law enforcement agencies.

The Justice Coalition's
Victims' Advocate

A free newspaper supporting victims' rights published monthly by The Justice Coalition. The opinions of contributing writers are not necessarily those of the Justice Coalition's Victims' Advocate or the Justice Coalition. The Justice Coalition's Victims' Advocate welcomes both editorial and photographic submission, but they cannot be returned. Please allow six weeks for a response to submitted works. Calendar information is welcome but must be submitted one month in advance of the event.

never cease to be amazed at the efficiency with which Matt Leipau and his team organize this always successful and enjoyable event. His restaurant, along with Red Lobster, Capital Grille and Olive Garden, provides delicious food, and the entire event runs smoothly every time.

I felt especially honored this year to have FBI Special Agent in Charge Jim Casey join us to meet the players and have his photo made with them. Nassau Sheriff Tommy Seagraves made time in his busy schedule to join us on yet another scorching hot day in NE Florida, and Aaron Bean did a great job as auctioneer. Proceeds from these two events will further enable us to assist those who need our help.

The next fundraiser planned is the Ride for Justice on September 11, so all you riders mark that date on your calendar. The second Ted Hires Legacy dinner will be October 21 at the Morocco Temple. Be thinking about your nomination for Outstanding Citizen, Business and/or Government Agency.

Ted Hires Legacy Outstanding Citizen Award - recognizes a victim or survivor of violent crime who has exhibited exceptional perseverance or determination in dealing with his or her own victimization. It may also acknowledge an individual who has acted bravely either to aid a victim or to prevent a victimization.

Ted Hires Legacy Business Award - recognizes a local business owner, corporation, or organization outside the victim assistance field for service to victims and/or contribution to victims of violent crime. The recipient of this award will be honored for selfless efforts to reach out to victims and/or their families.

Ted Hires Legacy Government Agency Award - honors a government agency/organization for its service to victims of violent crime. The award recognizes a professional's exceptional contributions and extraordinary impact on behalf of victims of violent crime.

Only one nomination per person will be accepted in each category. Submission must include nominator's full name, title, affiliation, address, telephone number, and e-mail address. Each nomination must be accompanied by an abstract (100 words or less) that outlines the nominee's accomplishments and your reason for nominating this individual, or organization.

Send your nomination to Justice Coalition, 1935 Lane Ave., S, Suite 1, Jacksonville, FL 32210, or email to: adugger@justicecoalition.org.

JC Assistant Director Judith Chapple accepts an award of $5,000 from Amy B. Parker, Community Director of the Paul and Klare Reinhold Foundation in Orange Park. Celebrate Clay recognizes, rewards and encourages community service within Clay County. The Justice Coalition was selected for working closely with Clay County Sheriff's Office to help 180 victims and for a community presentation on safety tips.
