Congratulations Dick Braendle

Mayor's Senior Citizen Award for "Man of the Year" 2001

(left) Dick Braendle expresses his appreciation. He stated, "This award should go to my wife, Polly, she deserves it for putting up with me."

Dick Braendle is the Chief Courtwatcher for the Justice Coalition. Dick has been in the Courtroom advocating for innocent victims of violent crime since 1995. Dick will turn 79 this month.

Tireless hours per week (35-40) are spent at the Duval County Courthouse encouraging mothers who have lost their children to murder — a father whose child was sexually molested — wives who are battling domestic violence, etc.

Dick feels it is the responsibility of citizens to provide oversight to the elected officials and the services they are sworn to uphold. He does much study so he can provide intelligent and informed suggestions to innocent victims of violent crime. Prosecuting attorneys applaud his efforts. Assistant State Attorney Angela Corey stated, "Dick is the eyes and ears for all victims and an inspiration to all of us on the side of justice here at the courthouse."

Mayor Delaney presented the Award on May 9, 2002, at the Prime Osborn Convention Center. The award ceremony was part of an all day Senior Expo. Other Award recipients were Female Senior Citizen of the Year, Bernie Furlong, and Senior Lifetime Achievement winner, Hector Cameron.
