Say NO to Crime, Drugs and Alcohol

The Council of Spanish-Speaking Organizations, Inc., invites the Hispanic community and the Jacksonville community as a whole to attend its annual festival:

YOUTH 2009

Saturday, June 20 from noon to 6:00 p.m.

Orange Park Town Hall Park (corner of Kingsley and Park Avenues)

Our goal is to fortify our community and guide our youth so they have a better future. The crime in Jacksonville has reached a very high level and number of youths in jail as increased drastically. This event is an excellent opportunity for the Hispanic community, as well as every other segment of the population, to unite and support our youth.

Guests include Miguel Angel from Connecticut, a group of Puerto Rican singers, and other local and national groups. There will be kiosks of food, souvenirs, information about education, games for children and many other activities.

For more information, please contact Mrs. Nilda Alajandro (904-291-3101) or by email: elconciliojax@yahoo.com

Gospel Jamboree, Safety Fair and Fun Day

Otis Road Church of God - 801 Otis Road, Jacksonville FL 32220

Join us for a day of good singing, food, as well as youth and senior citizen safety tips, as well as information about self defense. Someone from the Justice Coalition will speak in the afternoon. For more information, call Deborah Wilkerson at 266-2545.

Amelia River

Amelia River (formerly Royal Amelia) is renowned as one of the best-conditioned courses in the area. This par 72 track, designed by Tom Jackson, which plays to a sandage of 6,823 from the back tee, is always in pristine shape with well-maintained rolling fairways, smooth bunkers and greens that challenge all skill levels. Golf attire is required. Collared shirts and slacks. No steel spikes are allowed on the course.

To benefit: JUSTICE COALITION

The Justice Coalition works hard to reach out to victims, the community, law enforcement, legislators, the faith-based organizations and local officials while following three objectives:

- To be available for innocent victims of violent crimes
- To educate the general public on criminal justice issues
- To be pro-active in the fight against crime
