Tragedy in JSO family creates financial challenges

In January, JSO Officer Peter Presti's sister, Joann, and her 12-year-old daughter, Alyssa, were found murdered in their home in Woburn, Mass. Joann's two-year-old son, Sean, was found unharmed but suffering from dehydration. Presti's parents made the gruesome discovery when they went to the residence to check on the family. Thankfully, Joann's nine-year-old son, Justin, was not home at the time these murders occurred.

Aside from the devastating emotional toll, Presti is facing several financial challenges which neither he, nor his family, is in a position to meet. Funeral expenses alone cost at least $15,000.

Sean, the two-year-old nephew, has had no contact with his father since birth and has been placed in foster care. Presti, the only family member able to care for Sean permanently, is consulting an attorney to obtain custody, which will likely incur substantial legal fees.

An account has been established for Pete Presti at the City and Police Federal Credit Union (Account #96400). Donations can be made at any branch location. If you wish to send a donation by mail, the address is 5546 Beach Boulevard, Jacksonville, FL 32207.

Thank you for your support to this fine young police officer and his family during this time of need.
