Jennifer Medernach...

"When night came and she hadn't returned, I called my daughter-in-law, Christy, and said, 'Jennifer isn't home yet.' I told her what had happened and that's when we called JSO to report her missing. We knew she had been in the trailer park because we had seen her, and some of her friends said she had spent the night with them. The officer said he would keep an eye out for her."

But she never came home, and her family and friends grieve for the sensitive young girl who perhaps was a budding poet. One family who signed her guest book commented: "Jennifer brought sunshine to our lives. Her smile allowed her beautiful brown eyes to sparkle; her laughter made everyone around her laugh."

Since Jennifer was found just across the line in Clay County, CCSO investigated the crime, interviewing the teens who found her body, her friends in the trailer park and several suspects. They lifted samples of blood off the bridge from where she obviously had been thrown and recovered evidence from the area. And they established that she was probably alive until about 12 hours before she was found in the stream.

Lt. David Senters and Det. Marty Cotchaleovitch of the Clay County Sheriff's Office have recently re-visited Jennifer's case, hoping a fresh look and new technology might help bring resolution to the mystery of who murdered this young girl. Someone knows who committed this brutal crime.

If you have any information that might lead to the apprehension of the person(s) responsible for Jennifer's death, please call Det. Cotchaleovitch at 904/213-6647.

On the Lighter Side

A blonde woman was speeding down the road in her little red sports car and was pulled over by a woman police officer who was also a blonde. The blonde cop asked to see the blonde's driver's license. She dug through her purse and was getting progressively more agitated.

"What does it look like?" she finally asked.

The policewoman replied, "It's square and it has your picture on it."

The driver finally found a square mirror, looked at it and handed it to the policewoman. "Here it is," she said.

The blonde officer looked at the mirror, then handed it back saying, "Okay, you can go. I didn't realize you were a cop."
