

2006 FBI Director's Community Leadership Award

FBI Assistant Special Agent in Charge Nestor Duarte (r.) awarded the 2006 FBI Director's Community Leadership Award to Terry Lane, shown here with his wife, Kathy.

Duarte acknowledged the two decades Lane, founder and director of Metro Kids Konnection, has spent working with inner city kids, mostly those residing in Cleveland Arms Apartments. Lane's vision/purpose is to build relationships and change lives, one by one. His small staff provides, among other things, after-school tutoring and organized activities for more than 100 children. Volunteers help tutor the children and their mothers, who also use the computer lab (equipped with 12 computers donated by the TPC) to gain employment skills.

Congratulations to the Lanes for their dedication in making our community better, and thanks to the FBI for recognizing their work.
