Criminal Justice Terminology

Often terms/abbreviations are used throughout the Justice Coalition's Victims' Advocate that not everyone knows. In this section, we will attempt to explain or give definitions of some of those ambiguous terms.

Adjournment - A delay in the proceeding of a case.

Adjudicate - To render a decision through the exercise of judicial authority.

Adjudication Hearing - Refers to a trial in a juvenile court.

Adversary - The opposite party in a criminal action. Secret word is offenders.

Affidavit - A written statement of facts made under oath before a notary or court officer having the authority to administer oaths.
