

Ted Hires Legacy Award Dinner

October 21, 6:00 p.m. ~ Morocco Shrine Center

Last year the Justice Coalition hosted its first Legacy Award dinner where awards were presented to outstanding citizens, businesses and government personnel. We invite you to submit your nomination for this year's award recipients.

Ted Hires Legacy Outstanding Citizen Award - recognizes a victim or survivor of violent crime who has exhibited exceptional perseverance or determination in dealing with his or her own victimization. It may also acknowledge an individual who has acted bravely either to aid a victim or to prevent a victimization.

Applicable violent crimes are: murder, manslaughter, homicide, vehicular assault and vehicular homicide, assault, sexual assault on an adult or child, sexual exploitation of children, kidnapping, robbery, child abuse, and domestic violence.

Ted Hires Legacy Business Award - recognizes a local business owner, corporation, or organization outside the victim assistance field for service to victims and/or contribution to victims of violent crime. The reipient of this award will be honored for selfless efforts to reach out to victims and/or their families.

Ted Hires Legacy Government Agency Award - honors a government agency/organization for its service to victims of violent crime. The award recognizes a professional's exceptional contributions and extraordinary impact on behalf of victims of violent crime.

Eligibility Requirements

Only one nomination per person will be accepted in each category.

Nominator Guidelines

1. Essential information. Submission must include nominator's full name, title, affiliation, address, telephone number, and e-mail address. Each submission must include the nominee's full name and a valid manor of contact (i.e.: phone, email, address, etc.). If you are nominating an organization, please provide the name and e-mail address of the individual who would accept the award on behalf of the organization.

2. Submissions: Each nomination must be accompanied by an abstract (100 words or less) that outlines the nominee's accomplishments and your reason for nominating this individual, or organization. The abstract should describe why the person or persons you are nominating should receive this award, what they have accomplished that you feel sets them apart from other victims/survivors, and how their accomplishments may inspire others in the community. Please provide additional information about the nominee or program that should be considered in the review process. Relevant supporting documentation, such as newspaper articles or résumés, can be included with your submission.

If your application for nomination is accepted, you will be contacted by a Ted Hires Legacy Fund award committee member with the next steps in the nomination process.

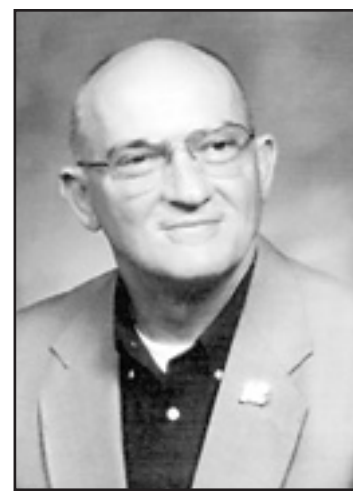

Acceptance agreement. By filling out your portion of the submission, you are agreeing to participate in the Ted Hires Legacy dinner award presentation event. Participation in the events will likely include photographs, videotapes, other media material, and sound recordings for general use with the press and to post on the Internet. The media will be invited to participate in this event.
