Jacksonville Ballistics Identification System Launches

In a news conference where he was joined by State Attorney Melissa Nelson and Mayor Lenny Curry, Sheriff Mike Williams hosted the local media and showcased the newly installed ballistics identification system that will link gun forensics and data to the national data base known as NIBIN. He also reflected on the important partnership with State Attorney Melissa Nelson. The Crime Gun Intelligence Center, where JSO, investigators, we can reduce the time it takes to identify suspects, address gun crime by leveraging state of the art technology. He located, in the SAO offices.

I know that by leveraging this technology and the people we deploy, such as our detectives, the ATF experts, and prosecution investigators, we can reduce the time it takes to identify suspects, get violent criminals off the streets, and link crimes and gunfire in Jacksonville,” he said.

“I know that by leveraging this technology and the people we deploy, such as our detectives, the ATF experts, and prosecution investigators, we can reduce the time it takes to identify suspects, get violent criminals off the streets, and link crimes and gunfire in Jacksonville,” he said.

“Many cities around the country have looked at this technology and the value of having a lab with experts inside their agency. I’m very proud that we made this a reality in Jacksonville,” said Sheriff Mike Williams reflecting on the shared agency. I’m very proud that we made this a reality in Jacksonville,” he said.

What We Do

Services offered by

• Provide immediate crisis intervention by assessing the victims’ needs and implementing an appropriate plan of action.

• Educate victims regarding criminal justice proceedings and their rights as victims of crime.

• Network our resources to provide the victim counseling and/or support groups, if needed.

• Accompany victims to court proceedings. This includes pretrial hearings, trials, depositions, meetings with prosecutors and injunction hearings.

• Act as a liaison between victims and prosecutors, law enforcement and the media.

• Assist victims in creating an effective impact statement to the court.

• Assist victims in applying for victims’ compensation.

• Assist victims in publicizing rewards for unsolved murders and missing persons.

• Publish a monthly newspaper that prints crime victims’ stories, pictures of unsolved murder victims, missing persons, wanted criminals and much more.

Volunteer Opportunities:

• Delivering our Victims’ Advocate goes to press. Because of this, some individuals may no longer be wanted.

• Clerical assistance

• Research and newspaper writing

• Fundraisers

• Posting flyers for missing persons and unsolved murders

• Special events

BUSTED

Each of us has a responsibility to help make our community safe, and aiding in the apprehension of those among us who choose to scoff at the law goes much more.

• • •

All Wanted pictures and information listed on pages 9 - 11 are typically submitted by the indicated Sheriff’s Offices several weeks before the Victims’ Advocate goes to press. Because of this, some individuals may no longer be wanted.

Last month, we held our 4th Annual Seasons to Remember Ceremony. Every year, we collect clothes of missing loved ones and those lost to violence. With the help of Donna Lappin, the clothes are stitched together into beautiful, comforting teddy bears. At our ceremony we present these bears, along with personally inscribed bibles, to families of the victims.

The holidays are a time of remembrance — a time to come together and be thankful. We at the Justice Coalition hope that these families are reminded of the joy that their loved ones gave them. Our biggest thanks goes to these families who remind us every year of their resilience and strength.

We would also like to extend a very warm thank you to the following sponsors and individuals:

- Julia Jenae, First Coast News
- Melissa Nelson, State Attorney 4th Judicial Circuit Court
- Pastor JimBo Stewart, Redemption Church
- Pastor Amos Bankhead, Combined Gospel Christian Fellowship Church
- Donna Lappin
- Keith Sullivan
- Golden Corral, Normandy Blvd.
- James Spencer
- San Jose Elementary School Choir
- Jonathan Lee, J.W. Lee Photography

We would also like to recognize the following volunteers, without whom this event would not be possible:

- Fran Futrill
- Pastor Amos Bankhead
- Angelica Ortiz

Dear Lysa,

"Thank you" cannot express how grateful I am for our help and support during the most difficult times in my life.

Your kindness and generous heart meant more to me than you’ll ever know.

God bless you always!!

And God bless all of the people at the Justice Coalition. May you forever provide services to those of us who have needed justice and support as victims or families of victims.

Much love,

P.S. the words are mine but my family feels the same.

– Letter to JC Director of Victim Advocacy Lysa Telzer from Deborah Wright, sister of Delores Futrell who was murdered by Randall Deviney in 2008. Deviney was sentenced to death in December 2017.
